The Baptism of the Lord Jesus

Sunday, January 12, 2020

Dear friends in Christ,

On this very last day of the Christmas Season, we hear about Jesus coming to John and asking to be baptized in the Jordan River: the Church sees this event as the beginning of Jesus’ public ministry. In the waters of the Jordan, as John baptizes the Lord, the Father speaks, the Holy Spirit descends, and Jesus is anointed to begin the mission for which he was born.

Peter proceeded to speak to those gathered in the house of Cornelius, saying:
“...Rather, in every nation whoever fears him and acts uprightly is acceptable to him. You know the word that he sent to the Israelites as he proclaimed peace through Jesus Christ, who is Lord of all, what has happened all over Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John preached, how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power. He went about doing good and healing all those oppressed by the devil, for God was with him.”

(Acts of the Apostles 10:34-38)

Even before Jesus was conceived in the womb of the Virgin Mary, the Angel Gabriel declared what the baby’s name would be, a name that held power and sacred meaning: salvation; God saves his people; God our savior; etc. If you are expecting a baby, or planning a family, I encourage you to use your faith, your family, and your personal experience to select a name for your child that will mean something powerful as well.

Years ago, checking in with about six families who had gathered to have their new babies baptized at another parish, I noticed that one little boy had been given the name “Sir.” I asked the parents if the name meant something in another language or culture, but the dad proudly told me: “Not at all. I just want everyone who meets my son to have to call him ‘Sir’ whether they like it or not!” Good grief, as Charlie Brown would say.

Much better, much more Catholic, is a choice based on some Christian virtue (e.g., Grace, Faith), a Catholic saint (such as Mark or Elizabeth), or a relative or friend who has made a positive impact (“we’re naming our new baby after my grandmother, who was the personification of compassion and trust in God”).

I’ve even encountered parents who choose names based on food or drink, and of course by the time we get to the baptismal prep, it’s too late: they have selected a name that their child will bear forever, based on some vintage the parents enjoy, or some snack they found adorable.

As Catholic Christians, let us bless our children with names, Sacraments, sacramentals, choices, care, teaching, protection, love, and guidance that will show them — and the Lord Jesus — that our own baptism means something truly powerful for us. Let us not delay baptizing babies, but give them a welcome into their Church family shortly after birth, when they emerged into the arms of their human family! Let us make sure they have access to medical care, prayer at home, and all the traditions of our Catholic ancestors which will help each child know what it means to be a sister or brother of Jesus: a crucifix on the wall, a Bible in the home, a prayer table, grace before meals, family discussions about matters of faith (“what happened to Grandma when she died?”), and how to make moral decisions that befit good Christian people in a world that often tries to push faith aside as too old-fashioned, or irrelevant.

Father Brown
SCAM ALERT!

Once again, someone invented a false address for Father Brown and sent out a request for help.

As a lot of you know, especially in synagogues and churches, scammers have been accessing email addresses and claiming to be a Sister, Rabbi, Minister or Priest, urgently asking congregation members to purchase a gift card, or send money, etc.

Do not reply to them, but feel free to let us know so we can alert everyone that somebody is up to shenanigans.

A number of you adopted a family in need and bought gifts for each member of the family. Others made special ornaments, participated in our children’s toy and book drives, and hung our gift cards on your Christmas Giving Trees. Still others helped with the festivities and Christmas parties at our program sites. Together we are changing lives one person, and one family at a time.
