January is a month where we focus on the Pro-Life movement of the Church. I know this can be a tough subject for many people, but we are called to celebrate and protect life. The misconception is that the Church is only for the unborn. While the Church does put more effort into protecting the unborn because they do not have a voice of their own, we believe and pray for life from natural conception through natural death. Our loving God is the author of our life and says when it is complete and time to return to Him. This includes the unborn, dignity of humans who are poor, in need of assistance whether it is mental or physical, the immigrant or the elderly. Life is such a gift and I have truly come to believe that more and more since I have been ordained a priest.

I am writing this letter to invite you to come walk with me and other parishioners at the Walk for Life West Coast 2019 in San Francisco on Saturday, January 26, 2019. Last year we had a great group go and we would love to do the same this year. Please see the information in the ad in the bulletin to see how to sign up.

For me, I do feel blessed to be able to walk for life and pray that the rest of the world sees God’s creation as a gift and how beautiful it is. I am not one for protests or walks of this nature. When I was growing up I was not pro-life nor pro-choice. I just wanted people to do whatever they wanted and I didn’t want to get involved. In growing in my faith, I started to see the beauty in God’s design and that He has a plan for everything and each one of us and joined the Pro-Life Movement.

My first time attending the Walk for Life was in 2010 and was my third week in seminary and my first time wearing the roman collar in public. It was a difficult experience to start. I was worried about wearing the collar in general and not used to it, then doing a demonstration walk in public which is not my style and finally knowing that there would be protesters. The protesters are what I was most fearful about. When I got there, there were protesters but they were kept away from us, I found the collar to be a blessing and a wonderful witness to our faith and the best part of all is the spirit of those who are walking. I absolutely love being at the rally before the walk. For me, it is like a Catholic reunion and I know so many people, but the spirit is full of life and joy. They are so happy to be there, not combative or angry but so positive. They are truly celebrating life. I love walking on the Walk as well because people are praying the rosary, sharing stories and catching up with old friend or meeting new people. There is such a joy, but even more than that, those who are walking have a great peace. We all want this peace.

Once again, I know that this is a tough subject and there are many facets to it. But I ask you to consider coming on the walk or pray for life or do research about it. It is a great witness and wonderful fellowship with your parishioners. If you have any questions about the Pro-Life movement please do some research, ask me or come to the Walk to check it out. I believe that this is a worthwhile event and brings us much grace. Please do feel free to contact me what any questions you may have and if you would like to go, please email Mari Pautler to reserve you spot on the bus. Her information is on the ad in the bulletin. May God Bless you and please ask the Lord in your prayer if you should come on the Walk for Life this year.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Rest In Peace
Ms. Sylvia Chase
Mr. Daryl Dragon

Merry Christmas! Share that cheerful greeting with some folk who attended Star Trek conventions, or were Cleopatra in a previous season. In fact, in some strands of the Christian tradition it represents Christmas Day, for example, the Gospel reading is the Prologue of the Second Book of John.
