Dear parishioners,

As we recuperate from the joys and activities of the Christmas Season (which ended last Sunday night), I count my blessings here in our community of church and school.

Unlike many Christians in more dangerous parts of the world, we have the opportunity to worship in peace, to find in this place food for the soul, the mind, and the body. Since 1888 Saint Hilary Church has been part of the Tiburon Peninsula, and since 1963 Saint Hilary School has worked hard to educate children in the ways of faith and knowledge. (It sometimes happens that people complain about the fact that people come to our campus each day for worship, fellowship, Bible study, school, volunteering, and special events that raise money for the poor and for scholarships — I’m always tempted to ask why in the world they chose to live on a street named after our patron saint if they don’t like the sound of children at play and Catholics coming to Mass. It’s like buying a house across the street from a shopping center and then getting angry about the traffic.)

We are also blessed to have so many dedicated people — old and young, single people and whole families, male and female — who give generously of their time, talent and treasure to keep our church and school going strong. This year we received a rebate of $27,603 from Archbishop Cordileone, because the good people of Saint Hilary’s not only made our goal for the Archdiocesan Annual Appeal, but exceeded it by this amount. So this money all comes right back here to help us keep the place in the black, do needed repairs, etc.

The responsorial psalm we sing for today’s Mass rather says it all: “Here am I, Lord; I come to do your will.” (Psalm 40) We are not merely a social club, but a church community focused on doing what God wants of us. This means providing people with a place to pray and meditate (such as the Eucharistic Adoration Chapel), to worship God (we have Mass each day at 9:00 a.m.), to help those in need (through out Saint Vincent de Paul Society, our Gabriel Project volunteers, etc.), to form children and adults in the faith (thanks to our parochial school, our Faith Formation Program, and our RCIA group), and to give the faithful a chance to deepen their communion with the Lord and each other through faith sharing groups, Bible study, book clubs, and the other programs that have been in place for many years.

To this end, may I draw your attention to the following upcoming events:

We want to welcome you to an information session by Moms Demand Action for Gun Sense in America in Tarantino Hall on 2/19/2020 at 7pm. Moms Demand Action is a bipartisan grassroots movement of Americans (Moms, Dads, Students, Single People, Priests, Nuns, etc.) fighting for public safety measures that can protect people, especially our children, from gun violence. The organization has established a chapter in every state of the country and Washington, D.C. and is part of Every town for Gun Safety, the largest gun violence prevention organization in the country with nearly 6 million supporters. The major thrust of the organization is to help pass common sense gun laws and work to close the loopholes that jeopardize the safety of our families. This movement includes gun owners and non-gun owners alike. We know that common-sense gun laws and a culture of gun safety go hand-in-hand with responsible gun ownership. Again this is not a partisan group, it is a group that wants to pass sensible gun laws that the majority of Americans support. The presentation will help us understand the gun violence crisis better, provide us with facts (what are Red Flag laws and what the background check legislation actually includes) and encourage us, if we are so inclined, to take action by calling our representatives at both the State and Federal levels. Please join us to see how you can help to limit gun violence in our country.

Please call Susan Geraghty with any questions: 415-435-3461.

If anyone has reason to believe, or might suspect, there is or has been abuse involving clergy, employees, volunteers, or children attending Catholic schools, parish religious education programs, or other church-related events, those suspicions or allegations are to be reported first to civil authorities and then to the Archdiocese via its assigned Victim Assistance Coordinator, Rocio Rodriguez, LMFT. Phone: (415) 614-5506 --- Email: rodriguezr@sfarchdiocese.org https://sfarchdiocese.org/how-to-report-suspected-abuse

Cases of alleged abuse in which the abuser and the victim are of the same household are to be reported to Child Protective Services (CPS), while cases in which the alleged victim and the accused do not share a household should be reported to law enforcement authorities (sheriff’s department or local police).

For Marin County, the proper authorities are listed below:
Child Protective Services (415) 499-7153
Sheriff’s Department (415) 479-2311
Catholic Charities thanks parishes throughout our Archdiocese in Marin, San Francisco and San Mateo Counties for making Christmas bright for our hundreds of families, children, adults with chronic illness, isolated seniors, and unaccompanied minors. A number of you adopted a family in need and bought gifts for each member of the family. Others made special ornaments, participated in our children’s toy and book drives, and hung our gift cards on your Christmas Giving Trees. Still others helped with the festivities and Christmas parties at our program sites. Together we are changing lives one person, and one family at a time. To all of you, we heartily thank you on behalf of the people we serve.

Eucharistic Adoration Ministry at Saint Hilary Parish:
Monday through Saturday

Our Blessed Sacrament Chapel (located down the little hallway between the Church and Tarantino Hall) is a sacred oasis in this busy and troubled world, for those who desire greater intimacy with Jesus, and the chance to enjoy some holy silence with him and his people.

If you are able to dedicate an hour a week, or one hour a month, you help make Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament possible for the people of Marin County — a great service. Please contact Shawn Sylvia to learn more.
