Dear People of Saint Hilary Church and School,

Today we begin our celebration of “Catholic Schools Week,” and I invite your prayers for all who choose our parochial school for the formation of their beloved children.

We also give thanks to God for the Sisters of the Holy Faith who came from Ireland to found Saint Hilary School more than fifty years ago, and for the many fine men and women who continue their tradition of helping young people, and their families, grow in the light of Christ. In preparing for this bulletin article, I searched for logos appropriate for Catholic Schools Week, and was surprised to find this one, which highlights the academic success our students demonstrate: not that I doubted it, but I had never seen this particular diagram.

For me, even more important is the formation of character, because as a young man I focused on learning, getting good grades, and receiving scholarships for college and graduate school. However, faith, morals, service, and sharing Christ with those around me was not really part of the picture. In fact, in many of the schools I attended, it was not really okay for us to talk about God and faith, so this was a private, personal matter. Sadly. Jesus calls us to be a light for the world, not a little reading lamp under a blanket.

By contrast, our Catholic elementary schools, high schools, colleges, and seminaries focus on helping young people discern what God has in mind for them, and encourages them to mix study with service, learning with Christian love, and to use their God-given talents for the good of the world — not merely for earthly gain.

Our world is filled with much division right now, and perhaps is has always been so, but we as Catholics can fight for something better. We can speak up for the dignity of human life, from the first moment in the womb until God calls us home. We have the duty and privilege not to merely repeat what one political party says, but to challenge all who serve us in public office to do the right, protect the common good, and listen when we speak up on issues of safety, care, compassion, food, health, warfare, access to clean water, and a host of other issues.

I thank God for the students of Saint Hilary School, because over and over again they show me by their words and actions, by their insights, questions, and acts of service, that God is at work in them. When we older people are tempted to get cynical, or to circle the wagons, or to use dehumanizing language, our children often serve as a delightful reminder that such tactics are not the only way to deal with troubling times. They show us that creativity, collaboration, and a prayerful openness to God’s Word can bring about much better results. May God bless you this week, and in the years to come!

Catholic Charities thanks parishes throughout our Archdiocese in Marin, San Francisco and San Mateo Counties for making Christmas bright for our hundreds of families, children, adults with chronic illness, isolated seniors, and unaccompanied minors. A number of you adopted a family in need and bought gifts for each member of the family. Others made special ornaments, participated in our children’s toy and book drives, and hung our gift cards on your Christmas Giving Trees. Still others helped with the festivities and Christmas parties at our program sites. Together we are changing lives one person, and one family at a time. To all of you, we heartily thank you on behalf of the people we serve.

Welcome, Father Howell!
The Vicar General of the Archdiocese of San Francisco, the Very Reverend Father Stephen H. Howell, V.G., is coming to St. Hilary Church to confer the Holy Sacrament of Confirmation on Saturday, February 8, at 11:00 A.M.

In answer to the question of “Who or What is a Vicar General?” this may help to explain: “Every bishop is required by Canon Law (Church Law) to appoint a Vicar General, who exercises the bishop’s executive power over the entire diocese and thus is the highest official in the diocese after the bishop in Canon Law.” Canons 475; 478, sec. 1; 479, sec. 1.

In other words, the Vicar General assists Archbishop Cordileone in whatever ways he is asked.

In the Archdiocese of San Francisco, a new Auxiliary Bishop has not yet been named by the Pope to replace our late Auxiliary Bishop Robert F. Christian, O.P., who died unexpectedly last July.

As a result, Archbishop Cordileone has delegated his Vicar General, Father Stephen H. Howell, to confer the Holy Sacrament of Confirmation in parishes within the Archdiocese of San Francisco, as needed and as directed by the Archbishop. We look forward to welcoming Father Howell to Tiburon!

Eucharistic Adoration Ministry at Saint Hilary Parish:
Monday through Saturday

Our Blessed Sacrament Chapel (located down the little hallway between the Church and Tarantino Hall) is a sacred oasis in this busy and troubled world, for those who desire greater intimacy with Jesus, and the chance to enjoy some holy silence with him and his people.

If you are able to dedicate an hour a week, or one hour a month, you help make Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament possible for the people of Marin County — a great service. Please contact Shawn Sylvia to learn more.
