Feast of the Presentation of the Lord

Sunday, February 2, 2020

Dear parishioners,

Today we Catholic Christians celebrate the Presentation of Jesus in the Temple, and we also celebrate the World Day for Consecrated Life — by happy coincidence, both are combined this weekend. I share with you this quote from the website of the American bishops:

“The Committee on Clergy, Consecrated Life and Vocations seeks to foster and encourage the various forms of consecrated life in the Church today. In Vita Consecrata, the 1996 Post-Synodal Apostolic Exhortation, Pope Saint John Paul II wrote of the different forms of consecrated life as ‘a plant with many branches which sinks its roots into the Gospel and brings forth abundant fruit in every season of the Church’s life.’ These diverse forms include: Monastic Life, the Orders of Virgins, Hermits, and Institutes completely devoted to contemplation, Apostolic Religious Life, Secular Institutes, Societies of Apostolic Life, and new or renewed forms of the consecrated life (cf. Vita Consecrata, 6-12). Each form is described in the Catechism of the Catholic Church.”

Right here we know people who have consecrated their lives to God and his people in a public and apostolic manner. Sister Dolores Maguire, CHF, belongs to the Religious Order which came from Ireland to found Saint Hilary School back in 1963 — Saint Hilary Church had already been part of the Tiburon Peninsula since 1888, but we had no parochial school, and thus the Sister of the Holy Faith (whose acronym is CHF) came on mission and used the charism of their foundress to make sure the children on our area could get a good Catholic education. You may read more about the history of this Religious Order by googling the words “Holy Faith Sisters” and then checking out their website: https://www.holyfaithsisters.org/

Father Bruno Gibson, OP, belongs to the Dominican Order, which has a long history in the Archdiocese of San Francisco. Like Father Bruno, the very first Archbishop of San Francisco, Joseph Sadoc Alemany y Conill, was a Dominican (whose acronym, OP, stands for “Order of Preachers”). Like the Sisters of the Holy Faith, Archbishop Alemany was an immigrant, coming from Spain to serve the Catholics of San Francisco in 1853. To learn more about Father Bruno’s community, please go here: https://www.opwest.org/

We also have cloistered Carmelite Nuns here in Marin County, who live a life of prayer and community up in San Rafael: https://cloisteredlife.com/directory/san-rafael Just recently during a Deanery meeting, we learned that a Swiss-born hermit priest lives in a hermitage on their property, celebrating Mass for them.

The Dominican Sisters of San Rafael have a very long history in California: https://sanrafaelop.org/ Much more recently, the Dominican Sisters of Mary Mother of the Eucharist moved here to teach at Marin Catholic High School: https://www.sistersofmary.org/san-francisco-mission-update/

As we pray for these women and men who have made a public consecration, let us also encourage the young people in our families to prayerfully consider where Jesus may be calling them. So many times, we hear that a young woman became a Sister because someone encouraged her, and that a young man entered the seminary because his friends and teachers asked him if he felt a vocational call. Today Joseph and Mary present Jesus in the Jerusalem Temple, and I hope that each of us may start the day by addressing God in gratitude, asking for the blessing of Jesus on our day, and inviting the Holy Spirit to lead us where he might be calling us, every so gently and subtly.

Moms Demand Action for Gun Sense in America

We want to welcome you to an information session by Moms Demand Action for Gun Sense in America on Wednesday, February 19, at 7:00pm. We will meet in Tarantino Hall, 763 Hilary Drive, Tiburon, CA 94920, near the corner of Rock Hill Road, right between St. Hilary Church and St. Hilary School.

Moms Demand Action is a bipartisan grassroots movement of Americans (Moms, Dads, Students, Single People, Priests, Nuns, etc.) fighting for public safety measures that can protect people, especially our children, from gun violence. The organization has established a chapter in every state of the country and Washington, D.C., and is part of Everytown for Gun Safety, the largest gun violence prevention organization in the country with nearly 6 million supporters. The major thrust of the organization is to help pass common sense gun laws and work to close the loopholes that jeopardize the safety of our families. This movement includes gun owners and non-gun owners alike. We know that common-sense gun laws and a culture of gun safety go hand-in-hand with responsible gun ownership. Again this is not a partisan group, it is a group that wants to pass sensible gun laws that the majority of Americans support. The presentation will help us understand the gun violence crisis better, provide us with facts (what are Red Flag laws and what the background check legislation actually includes) and encourage us, if we are so inclined, to take action by calling our representatives at both the State and Federal levels. Please join us to see how you can help to limit gun violence in our country.
