Dear parishioners,

The Responsorial Psalm this weekend reminds me of the King James Bibles we were given by our Baptist neighbors in Las Vegas, where we lived when I was in second grade. My brother Don and I even attended Vacation Bible School with them, and for some reason I decided to memorize Psalm 1 in the lofty language of that translation!

Blessed the man who follows not the counsel of the wicked, nor walks in the way of sinners, nor sits in the company of the insolent, but delights in the law of the LORD and meditates on his law day and night. He is like a tree planted near running water, that yields its fruit in due season, and whose leaves never fade. Whatever he does, prospers.

(Psalm 1)

For my soul, the last line in the Psalm quoted above has never been about becoming rich or important, but rather about “prospering” in a different sense: being happy. Knowing that we are good disciples of Jesus. Helping others. Growing in holiness and wisdom. That sort of prospering.

The preaching you hear from Father Ginter and me this Sunday is a plea to help support the Archdiocesan Annual Appeal, a sort of “tax” each parish must pay to keep many Catholic services alive and well in our three counties. It’s never fun to discuss finances (as the Dowager Countess of Grantham pointed out in Downton Abbey: “Oh good, let’s talk about money!”). However, for believers to do good, we need to be good stewards of the gifts God has given us: time, talent, and treasure.

If you are registered as an official member of Saint Hilary Parish, you probably already received the AAA packet and letter from me, or you will on Monday. Please read the brochure and make a generous donation, which helps not only the parish you call your spiritual home, but also the people who are impacted by your giving. You may read more about the specific ways your Annual Appeal donation makes a difference, both in the mailing, and on the website at:

https://www.sfarchdiocese.org/aaa

Our tax this year ($106,292) has gone down by about one thousand dollars, because our parish income has gone down, and because the number of people attending Mass here has gone down. Usually, we receive a rebate of $11,000 from the Annual Appeal, but this past year we only got one-tenth of that amount. One-quarter of our AAA goal is donated by a single family in our parish, so I urge you to step up with them and help us meet our obligation. Each year I donate $1,000 to the Appeal, and I encourage those who can to meet my gift, or to exceed it, but every gift is needed, and every donation is appreciated. You help so many people when you support the AAA. You show through your giving that Saint Hilary Parish is still alive and kicking. You make it clear that we care not only about our own community, but also the wider Church of which we are an important part. God bless you and yours!

Father Brown
Are you or someone you love dealing with separation or divorce?
The Archdiocese strives to make known Christ’s healing love, so that all who suffer from separation and divorce might experience new life, reconciliation and restoration, meet people in a similar position and find help to rebuild their own lives.

We also recognize that separated and divorced people are not mere recipients of the Church’s compassion; they are ministers of that compassion. Through their vulnerability, suffering, courage, faithfulness, and patient endurance they bear witness to Christ and his redeeming grace in the world.

New Beginnings: a Catholic Divorce Ministry group in Marin (St. Hilary Parish) meets the 2nd Friday of the month (6:30pm) – contact Karen (415-250-2597).
A Spanish-speaking group meets at Our Lady of Loretto/Novato the 3rd Friday (7:00pm) – contact Victoria (702-460-3116).

Food Waste – The Impact on Climate Change:
An Evening with Laura Moreno, MS, PhD, of the Energy and Resources Group at U.C. Berkeley. It is estimated that 40% of the edible food in the U.S. goes uneaten each year, with a large portion of that waste generated by households. Dr. Moreno has a decade of experience researching household-level food waste, with a focus on measurement and behavior. Using both qualitative and quantitative methods, she seeks to understand how social and cultural factors as well as the larger food system play into how food is wasted. All are welcome. There is no charge. There will be light refreshments and time for questions. Please RSVP by phone or e-mail, above.

Saint Hilary School News

Did you know that Saint Hilary School sends gently used uniforms to a school in India?

As part of our culture of service and giving, Saint Hilary collects used surplus Saint Hilary School uniforms for donation to Saint Xavier Mission School in Gurap, India.

Saint Xavier is a Jesuit school located in a rural region about 40 miles outside of Calcutta. The 144 kids who attend this K - 4th school are from the indigenous Santal tribe of the area and are considered “untouchables” (the lowest Indian caste) and are very poor.

St Hilary School has donated hundreds of pieces of used uniforms—polos, slacks, jumpers and skirts, cardigans, fleece, and sweatshirts. We have clothed not only Saint Xavier’s students but other needy children within the region.

Thank you to the Krauss and Vano families for spearheading this effort and being Saint Xavier’s champions. This is a great example of our Saint Hilary students partaking in a culture of giving and helping those who are less fortunate.

Many Blessings to you!
