“This is the cause of our life: that we have Christ dwelling within our carnal selves through the flesh, and we shall live through Him in the same manner as He lives through the Father.”
Saint Hilary of Poitiers († 360 A.D.)
Parish Ministries Update!

Your Parish Pastoral Council has invited people from various organizations to come and update us about what is available. Here is some recent news we received:

Pastoral Visitation of the Sick and Homebound

St. Hilary has an active pastoral ministry. We have people who go regularly to visit the homebound, whether it is a temporary need like a broken leg or on a more permanent inability to get to Mass.

For more information, to volunteer or if you have a pastoral need, call Anne Drew at (415) 435-3078 or Diana Rittenhouse at the parish office.

Warm Clothing Drive

Clothing and shoes for men, women, children and teens are collected year-round in the barrels in the back of church. Every one to two weeks, the clothes are delivered to Saint Anthony’s Dining Room in San Francisco.

For more information about donations or if you would like to help with this important ministry, please contact Larry Drew lawrence.drew@ucsf.edu or Bobbie Krag bkrag13@gmail.com

Baptism

Each child should be baptized as soon as possible after birth. Parents are required to attend an instruction session before the baptism of their baby. Please contact Diana Rittenhouse at dianar@sthilary.org or (415) 937-5524
The Sisters of the Holy Faith were founded in Ireland by a Waterford woman, Margaret Aylward, and a Vincentian priest, Father John Gowan, C.M.

Margaret Aylward was the daughter of a wealthy merchant in Waterford, a port town in Ireland. She went to Dublin to visit her brother shortly after the famine had ended and what she saw horrified her. Orphaned children were roaming the streets in search of food and shelter. Soup kitchens had been established, but the price of a cup of soup was the loss of your Catholic faith.

Margaret gathered around her a group of women, the Ladies Of Charity, and everywhere there was a soup kitchen Margaret opened a school and encouraged the children to have some food and an education.

As you can well imagine, this did not make her popular with the British establishment who were running the soup kitchens and they sought to punish her. They succeeded when they accused her of stealing a child. Margaret had not only opened schools but she also traveled the countryside to seek out Catholic foster homes for the children. When this was known a letter was forged and Margaret was summoned to court. The sentence given her was a cruel one: she was imprisoned in a mental asylum and kept there for six months.

Upon her release Margaret, now in very poor health, walked back to the home she had purchased for herself and the Ladies of Charity to find that only two of the women had remained. Margaret knew then that she would have to establish a Religious Congregation to continue the mission she had begun.

She was introduced to Father John Gowan, CM. He became her spiritual director and together having discerned Margaret’s call they founded the Sisters of the Holy Faith.

The charism of the Sisters is faith which they seek to spread everywhere they minister.

In 1963 the pastor of Saint Hilary Church in Tiburon invited the Holy Faith Sisters to come to this parish to found our parochial school. A Sister of the Holy Faith has been in the parish since then. Photos in Tarantino Hall tell the story of the early days at Saint Hilary School.

Today, the CHF Sisters minister in Ireland, Trinidad, Australia, New Zealand, South Sudan, and in the United States (New Orleans, and California).

If anyone has reason to believe, or might suspect, there is or has been abuse involving clergy, employees, volunteers, or children attending Catholic schools, parish religious education programs, or other church-related events, those suspicions or allegations are to be reported first to civil authorities and then to the Archdiocese via its assigned Victim Assistance Coordinator, Rocio Rodriguez, LMFT. Phone: (415) 614-5506 — Email: rodriguezr@sfarchdiocese.org https://sfarchdiocese.org/how-to-report-suspected-abuse

Cases of alleged abuse in which the abuser and the victim are of the same household are to be reported to Child Protective Services (CPS), while cases in which the alleged victim and the accused do not share a household should be reported to law enforcement authorities (sheriff’s department or local police).

For Marin County, the proper authorities are listed below:
Child Protective Services (415) 499-7153
Sheriff’s Department (415) 479-2311

Recently I checked my own Smile.Amazon.com account and discovered I had “earned” more than a thousand dollars for our parish by simply using this AmazonSmile option: but it’s important to use the correct bookmark, or no charity gets helped.
As our population decreases, this is a great and simple way to help your parish stay in the black!

Walking with Moms in Need: A Year of Service

Maria Martinez-Mont, Respect Life Coordinator
prolife@sfarch.org
https://www.walkingwithmoms.com/

In honor of the 25th anniversary of Pope St. John Paul the Second’s encyclical Evangelium Vitae (The Gospel of Life) and in answer to St. John Paul’s call, the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops Committee on Pro-Life Activities has launched a year-long nationwide program entitled “Walking with Moms in Need: A Year of Service.” Parishes are invited to join this effort to increase the Church’s outreach and support to pregnant women facing difficult or unexpected pregnancies. It begins on the solemnity of the Annunciation, March 25, 2020, and continues until March 25, 2021.

Archbishop Salvatore J. Cordileone has written a letter to our pastors: “No matter what lawmakers or courts decide in the coming years, we as Catholic Christians must continue to focus on the needs of pregnant and parenting moms in our parishes and neighborhoods. As Pope Francis reminds us, our parishes need to be ‘islands of mercy in the midst of a sea of indifference.’”

Prayers, and an effort at each parish to inventory resources, will be key components of this effort. Learn more at the website.

To participate, contact Respect Life Coordinator Maria Martinez-Mont, above.

Saint Patrick’s Dinner (scheduled for March 21) has been cancelled due to health concerns.

We have also cancelled our Wednesday Soup Suppers until further notice, and our Senior Lunch (scheduled for March 19) will not take place.

The Archdiocese of San Francisco has asked us to cancel certain group events, especially out of concern for those who might be vulnerable to the coronavirus when groups gather to share food and drink.

In addition, all Catholic schools in the Archdiocese of San Francisco will be closed for at least two weeks.

Let us pray for those who are suffering — and those who assist them.
