Second Sunday of Easter

Sunday, April 28, 2019

Dear friends in Christ,

One week ago, during the great Easter Vigil Mass, the most important liturgy during our entire year, we were privileged to welcome eleven believers as full members of the Catholic Church:

- Sarah Bowen and her daughter Jemima,
- Elisabeth Burhenne,
- Lauren Fee,
- George and Kelly Graziadei,
- Jesse and Katie and Gustafson,
- Milla Hansen,
- Branden Paris,
- Claude (Steven) Stephens.

The Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Confirmation, Eucharist) make us children of God, sisters and brothers of Jesus, and heirs to everlasting life — and the joy on the faces of everyone in church showed just how happy they were to be part of this powerful and life-giving celebration.

It started, of course, right after Jesus rose from the dead almost two thousand years ago, as we hear in the Mass of this Second Sunday of Easter: “Many signs and wonders were done among the people at the hands of the apostles...Yet more than ever, believers in the Lord, great numbers of men and women, were added to them.” (Acts 5:12) And of course nowadays we would add “men, women, and children,” because each year our parish welcomes not only adults but also children and teens.

Today’s Gospel makes this same point, about how the Church would grow due to the Paschal Mystery, as the people came to know that Jesus had died for them, and had been raised up by the Father on that Easter day: “Jesus came, although the doors were locked, and stood in their midst and said, ‘Peace be with you.’ Then he said to Thomas, ‘Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe.’ Thomas answered and said to him, ‘My Lord and my God!’ Jesus said to him, ‘Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed.’ Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples that are not written in this book. But these are written that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that through this belief you may have life in his name.” (John 20:19-31)

This appearance of Jesus to Doubting Thomas on the Second Sunday of Easter elicits the strongest statement of faith we find from any of the disciples, it seems: “My Lord and my God!” Many people had addressed Jesus as Lord, Rabbi, Teacher, and Master, but Doubting Thomas, who encounters the Risen Jesus in person, goes even further, proclaiming his divinity. And Jesus tells Thomas, and us, that the greater blessing is to know him as Lord and God, Savior and Redeemer, long after he has been seated at the Father’s right hand — as the members of our RCIA group did, along with us, in celebrating the Easter Victory last weekend, and every Sunday of the year! May these fifty days of Easter bring you and your loved ones joy and blessing, and life.
