Rev. William Brown — Pastor
Rev. Andrew Ginter — Parochial Vicar

The parish vision is, simply put, to get us all into heaven. Our mission is to build a community in which we can experience the goodness of the Lord at work in our midst and share some of that limitless joy awaiting us in God’s kingdom.
From Your Parish Pastoral Council

The Parish Pastoral Council (PPC) is a consultative body whose purpose is to assist Father Brown in carrying out the parish’s vision, articulated on the cover page of the bulletin. Another role of the PPC is to act as a sounding board for the congregation at large. In our most recent meeting we discussed:

☆ The RCIA ministry’s role in a faith journey, ways for the entire Parish to help evangelize, engage, and welcome candidates into our community, as well as to provide opportunities for new Catholics to continue putting their faith into action.
☆ The preparation of an Advent Parish Retreat here with Sr. Patricia Bruno, OP and Fr. Jude Siciliano, OP.
☆ Update on our Hearing Devices, their distribution at Mass, feedback on clear communication, and the posting of a sign at the Church’s entrance to encourage use.
☆ Introduction of a new electronic tool, Flocknote, that will expand our abilities to communicate within our Parish as well as to provide the means to offer the “Word on Fire” library series.
☆ We look forward to continuing to receive your questions and suggestions. Please contact the PPC members through our group email below, or you may also leave a message at (415) 891-7413 and we will be very happy to return your call.

Baptism
Each child should be baptized as soon as possible after birth. Parents are required to attend an instruction session before the baptism of their baby. Please contact Diana Rittenhouse at (415) 937-5524.
Dear parishioners,

On this last day of the Easter Season, we celebrate “the birth of the Church,” as many have called it. The Holy Spirit comes down upon those closest to the heart of Jesus, so that they might be able to speak in power as he did, forgive sins as he chose to do, reach out to heal the sick just as Jesus had done, and then go out to proclaim the Gospel to peoples and cultures Jesus himself never reached.

Perhaps this is why the Lord told them, “you will do greater things than I” (John 14:12), because Jesus never visited Rome, never met the good people of Ireland, and most certainly did not have a chance to mingle with the inhabitants of what would later come to be known as Tiburon.

Jesus also did not speak all of the varied languages his disciples would miraculously be able to use to spread the Good News (Acts 2:1-11), but the Holy Spirit Jesus which promised them did give them this gift — even as faith in the Risen Lord is a gift, not of our own making, but freely bestowed by God.

In English, we are able to see the play on words which existed also in the original Greek, as the disciples are seen with tongues of fire above their heads, which enabled them to speak in different tongues so that people from throughout the world could hear and understand the message of salvation.

In both cases, the Greek word for “tongues” is the same (γλῶσσαι — glossai), and the reader or listener is meant to understand the connection. From this Pentecost miracle, and from this word, we even today have terms such as glossolalia or γλωσσολαλία — which means “speaking in tongues.”

We also will recognize the word glossary or γλωσσάριο — which Dictionary.com defines as: “a list of terms in a special subject, field, or area of usage, with accompanying definitions.”

Back to the gift of faith! Like all gifts, we can choose to cherish the gift of faith and make it grow, both in our hearts and in the lives of those around us. Or, we can shove the gift aside, into some dusty closet, ignoring it until perhaps we are (as one man in his nineties put it) “cramming for the final exam.” However, this would be such a waste, both of God’s generosity to us, and of our opportunity to enhance the lives of the people we meet. I am reminded of moving into a rectory once and finding a beautiful gift basket of food which the man had never opened: the treats had expired years before, and the plastic had never been removed from the gift basket at all. Instead of being enjoyed, or shared with others for a nice experience, or passed on to people who might treasure such elegant items, it had been gathering dust long after the priest had died.

So, part of our task as good Christian people is to make sure our gift of Pentecost continues to burn brightly, thanks to the Holy Spirit. Part of our responsibility is to help those RCIA children, teens, and adults who were baptized, confirmed, and given First Holy Communion during the Easter Vigil Mass find ways to use their own unique gifts right here in our parish, and in their school or place of work. Part of our duty is to help the young people who were confirmed by Bishop Justice to keep living their Catholic faith, not seeing the Sacrament of Confirmation as a kind of “graduation” but rather as a strengthening for ongoing goodness.

Blessed Pentecost to you, and to your loved ones!

Impact Investing

Sister Corinne Florek, OP, Executive Director of RCIF (Religious Communities Investment Fund), will be the featured Gather@Grand speaker on Wednesday, May 23, 7:00-8:30PM.

The title of her talk is: “What is Impact Investing? The Sisters Do It and You Can Too!” Where do the Gospel and investing intersect? Twenty-nine congregations of women religious, including the San Rafael Dominicans, are using their financial resources as a ministry to help overcome social and environmental inequities. Also speaking will be Ms. Annie McShiras, Investment Associate at Self Help Federal Credit Union. It promises to be an interesting evening! We will have light refreshments and time for your questions.

The Gathering Space - Dominican Sisters Center, 1520 Grand Avenue, San Rafael, between Acacia and Locust Streets. Be sure to RSVP: CommunityRelations@sanrafaelop.org or (415) 453-8303 — www.sanrafaelop.org
