Dear parishioners,

On this last day of the Easter Season, the great Solemnity of Pentecost, we experience once again the joy of those first believers who received the Holy Spirit:

On the evening of that first day of the week,
when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews,
Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, “Peace be with you.”
When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side.
The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord.
Jesus said to them again, “Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.”
And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them,
“Receive the Holy Spirit.”
(John 20:19-22)

The wording of the Gospel story is so reminiscent of other Bible passages, when the Lord God created the heavens and the earth, and breathed on the newly made world and thus brought life out of nothingness, humankind out of God's divine love (Genesis 2:7), later new life back to the dry bones of a people in desolation (Ezekiel 37:9), and revealed that the first imperfect man, Adam, was now supplanted by the new perfect man, Jesus (1 Corinthians 15:45), who was not merely flesh but also spirit. Not from the earth, but from heaven!

And so on Easter Sunday, the Risen Lord Jesus tells his friends to “receive the Holy Spirit,” the Πνεῦμα Ἅγιον (Pneuma Hagion), just as we pray that each newly baptized baby will be consecrated by the Holy Spirit by the imposition of hands, being raised to the light by parents and godparents who are true believers.

That each child receiving First Holy Communion will have the Holy Spirit as their inner guide, to help each girl and boy know and proclaim that this is not just bread and wine, but the Risen and Glorified Lord Jesus they are receiving in the Blessed Sacrament.

That each person stepping forward for the Sacrament on Confirmation will, by their own free choice, welcome the Holy Spirit into their body, mind, soul, and life, to give them the spirit of right judgment and courage, the spirit of understanding the knowledge of God’s will for them, as they become full-fledged members of the Catholic Church.

That each person coming to Confession will feel and celebrate the presence of the Holy Spirit when the priest extends his hands over the penitent and speaks the words of absolution, a Sacrament which brings about the forgiveness of those sins honestly confessed with contrition and a desire to change one’s life for the better.

That each couple exchanging their sacred marriage vows will feel the working of the Holy Spirit not only on the day of their wedding, but throughout their life together, until they are parted by death.

That each person being ordained as deacon, priest, or bishop will take seriously the consecration prayer, which asks the man to truly be a servant of God and God’s people through prayer, leadership, and sacrifice.

That each person who receives the Last Rites (Confession, Anointing, and Holy Communion as Viaticum) will find peace in the Holy Spirit reminding them of the promises of eternity they received long ago.
