Dear Friends in Christ,

Recently I have read a couple of beautiful articles, and watched two lovely videos, about the importance of making the Sign of the Cross.

The authors of these insights had a few things in common in their discussion about this very Catholic act, which is recognizable throughout the world, as marking us for who we are, whom we follow, and to which Church we belong:

- It is so important, and such a privilege, for us “older people” to teach our young children how to make the Sign of the Cross when they are old enough to grasp the concept that this is truly something that all Catholics do. Sadly, many students in our First Communion groups seem not to have learned this prayerful act, and so the catechists, teachers, and priests must try to teach them what they have not learned at home. To make it easier for the little ones, I sometimes show them with the appropriate words, and ask them to imitate me: of course this leads to confusion when they “do it backwards,” so then I sometimes say: “Okay, it’s top, bottom, left, right. Top, bottom, left right.” It’s a bit like the training we got in the Air Force for how to march here and there. One has to learn to do it properly.

- A second point these authors made is how essential it is for each of us, personally, to realize the sacred nature of making the Sign of the Cross, and to pass this on to the next generation. It’s not sloppy, it’s not insignificant, but rather a sign of reverence, a statement of our faith in the Trinity, and a beautiful way to show the Lord (and one another) that we are indeed in this together, as one big family of faith from every corner of the earth.

- The authors I enjoyed also pointed out how respectfully and reverently making the Sign of the Cross puts us into the proper spirit of mind as we enter the Church for a private visit to the Blessed Sacrament, or for Sunday Mass. Even as Muslim remove their shoes are take part in a careful washing before entering the mosque, we should call to mind we are on holy ground, and reverently dip our hand into the cleansing holy water of baptism as we draw near to the Holy of Holies.

- Another insight I found helpful was how we can use the Sign of the Cross at night, in bed, to calm our mind for a good rest, to ask God’s blessing on our love ones, and to ask God’s pardon for any sins we committed that day.

This type of Catholic mindfulness, for me, is a powerful way to make the Sign of the Cross an act of worship toward our Triune God, and a reminder to me of God’s call to holiness.

Archdiocese of San Francisco
2019 Archdiocesan Annual Appeal

The Archdiocesan Annual Appeal (AAA) provides parishioners throughout our Archdiocese a unique opportunity to come together. Through AAA, the over ninety Parishes in our Archdiocese unite as one! The AAA is essential to the work of the Archdiocese of San Francisco. Although we are spread over the counties of Marin, San Francisco, and San Mateo, we are one Archdiocese, collaborating in the Ongoing mission of evangelization and education. The theme for this year’s Annual Appeal is “I will show you my faith by my works.” Together, we are able to demonstrate our faith through the AAA by supporting such critical needs as youth and Young adults, parish schools and students, social ministries, ecumenical efforts, and greater Church.

The Archdiocese strives to make known Christ's healing love, so that all who suffer from separation or divorce might experience new life, reconciliation, and restoration, and by meeting people in a similar position may find help to rebuild their own lives. We also recognize that separated and divorced people are not mere recipients of the Church's compassion: they are also ministers of that compassion. Through their vulnerability, suffering, courage, faithfulness, and patient endurance, they bear witness to Christ and his redeeming grace in the world. New Beginnings Ministry offers these support groups:

First and Third Wednesdays, 7:00 pm:
St. Brendan Church, Parish Center, 29 Rockaway Ave., San Francisco. Contact Diana (415-929-0999) dianamwild@gmail.com or Martin (650-739-6446) for more information.

Second Friday each month, 6:30 pm:
St. Hilary Parish, Tarantino Hall, 763 Hilary Dr., Tiburon.
Contact Karen (415-250-2597).

Third Friday each month, 7:00 pm:
A Spanish-speaking group at Our Lady of Loretto Parish, 1806 Novato Blvd., Novato.

Eucharistic Adoration Chapel Devotion ~

Please consider spending time weekly with the Blessed Sacrament in our own Adoration Chapel: 10 minutes, 30 minutes, or a Holy Hour.

“A thousand years of enjoying human glory is not worth even an hour spent in sweetly communing with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament.”
