Farewell, Fr. Ginter! Welcome, Fr. Jandonero!

Sunday, July 7, 2019

Dear parishioners,

This weekend we thank Father Andrew Ginter for his first three years of priesthood, ministering to the people of this community, and promoting vocations to the priesthood for the Archdiocese of San Francisco. We wish him all the best as he moves into Saint Patrick Rectory in Larkspur, from where he will commute to Marin Catholic High School each day as their new, full-time Campus Chaplain.

This same weekend, we look forward to welcoming Father Ernesto Jandonero (hahn-doe-neh-row) who was ordained just a few weeks ago, and who begins work here on July first as our new Parochial Vicar. Father Jandonero is the third newly ordained priest in a row Archbishop Cordileone has sent to Saint Hilary Church and School, which speaks highly of his confidence in you, the good people of our community, as a new priest’s first assignment is so important for his soul, his well-being, his future — and his ability to become a wonderful minister to God’s own people.

May I suggest just a couple of things to help Father Jandonero get to know us?

1. As you welcome him, please give him your name over and over again, as for some of us it takes a long time to match faces with names. The first parishioners I got to know in 1988 were Hettie and Marian Schmidt, sisters in their eighties who gently introduced themselves to me each Sunday on the plaza until I was able to say: “Marian and Hettie: good to see you!”

2. Please use his name, which is not that hard to pronounce: if we can say Tarantino, we can say Jandonero. One staff member noticed the pronunciation is a bit like the car, plus the second part: Honda-Nerro.

3. It is probably best not to besiege a new priest with spiritual agendas that might take him by surprise and be off-putting. In my deacon parish, Saint Elizabeth, a family just across the street from the rectory greeted me right after I was ordained to the priesthood with the words, “Father Brown, we are praying each day that you will become a Charismatic now!” Here in Tiburon, as I was moving my boxes into the rectory back in 2010, a parishioner walked up to ask me, “Are you a Marian priest?” I felt a bit confused and judged, not knowing what a ‘Marian priest’ might be, so I simply told them I was a Catholic priest and hoped that would suffice.

4. As we all get to know each other, there will be plenty of occasions to share ideas, suggestions, and constructive criticisms. This happened with me when I moved north to Saint Hilary Parish, and much of it was indeed very helpful, as I’m sure it will be for Father Jandonero.

Today’s Second Reading sums up what we are about as Catholic Christians, and as members of this parish family:

“For the whole law is fulfilled in one statement, namely: you shall love your neighbor as yourself.”

(Galatians 5:14)

With this simple reminder as a starting point for what we do and say, I believe the Risen Lord Jesus will bless our work together for the spread of his Gospel, and the care of his beloved people.

God bless you and yours,

Father Brown

Archdiocese of San Francisco
2019 Archdiocesan Annual Appeal

The Archdiocesan Annual Appeal (AAA) provides parishioners throughout our Archdiocese a unique opportunity to come Together. Through AAA, the over ninety Parishes in our Archdiocese unite as one! The AAA is essential to the work of the Archdiocese of San Francisco. Although we are spread over the counties of Marin, San Francisco, and San Mateo, we are one Archdiocese, collaborating in the Ongoing mission of evangelization and education. The theme for this year’s Annual Appeal is “I will show you my faith by my works.” Together, we are able to demonstrate our faith through the AAA by Supporting such critical needs as youth and Young adults, parish schools and students, social ministries, ecumenical efforts, and greater Church.
