The parish vision is, simply put, to get us all into heaven. Our mission is to build a community in which we can experience the goodness of the Lord at work in our midst and share some of that limitless joy awaiting us in God’s kingdom.
St. Hilary Book Club will not meet the month of August.

We will meet Monday, Sept. 17. At our Sept. meeting we will select our books for 2018-2019. Members please bring a couple of books to recommend. Be prepared to give a brief synopsis of your book and we will make our selections.

St. Hilary Book Club meets the 3rd Monday of each month in Tarantino Hall from 7:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. We discuss the book for the first hour and then we enjoy light refreshments. We welcome new members. For more information contact: Caroline Buckles (415) 381-1745

Religious Ed for Kindergarten-8th Grade
Online enrollment for the 2018-19 Religious Education year at Saint Hilary is now open. Enroll before August 10 to take advantage of the early-bird discount! Visit our parish website to access our enrollment at http://www.sthilar y.org/religious-education-for-children.html or type the following link into your browser: https://camps cui.active.com/orgs/SaintHilaryReligiousEducationProgram?orglink=camps-registration. Feel free to share it with family and friends who might be interested in our program as well.

All of our sessions for Kindergarten through 8th grade will be meeting from 10-10:45am on Sundays starting on September 9.

We look forward to a terrific and faith-filled year with your families! For questions, please contact me at: lisaveto@gmail.com.
RENOVATION OF OUR BLESSED SACRAMENT CHAPEL

Sunday, July 22, 2018

Dear parishioners,

Starting on Saturday, August 4, our Blessed Sacrament Chapel, located just between the Church and Tarantino Hall will be closed for renovations — for one entire month.

We are most grateful to the many generous people who have been involved in the chapel since we moved from Old Saint Hilary’s to our “new” location here on Hilary Drive back in 1951, and especially those who keep watch with our Eucharistic Lord Monday through Saturday so that other people in need can come and take part in Eucharistic Adoration throughout the day. This is a great blessing for young and old alike, especially when life seems overwhelming and they need some silent time in the Divine Presence — even today’s Gospel, by happy coincidence, reminds us of this grace:

The apostles gathered together with Jesus and reported all they had done and taught.

He said to them,

“Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while.”

People were coming and going in great numbers, and they had no opportunity even to eat.

Mark 6:30

The work of renovation will be messy, so during these four weeks we encourage you to pray in the Church, as the chapel will be closed. Here at Saint Hilary Parish, we are indeed fortunate to have the Blessed Sacrament reserved in the Church as well as in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel.

I also ask that anyone who loaned or donated items for use in the Chapel (e.g., statues, carpets, wall hangings, icons) to please remove them BEFORE Saturday, August 4, as the workmen will start their renovation on that very date.

If something belongs to you, or was donated by you, you may wish to use it at home in your own family prayer corner, or donate it to our parochial school, or to another place in need — we will be starting “from scratch” in renovating the Blessed Sacrament Chapel, with everything new.

Thank you, in advance, for your patience and cooperation as we get ready for this lovely work. I will be updating you about our new “Adoration Society” in the coming weeks, as we will re-open the Blessed Sacrament Chapel in time for the First Friday in September, hopefully with a greater number of volunteers willing to keep watch with Jesus, and thus make it possible for people in the area to come and adore, with them, our Risen and Glorified Eucharistic Lord!

God bless you and yours,

Father Brown

http://signis.net/
For the first time, SIGNIS (the World Catholic Association for Communications) and the Vatican’s Secretariat for Communications are launching a global poster and video competition on the theme of the 2018 World Communications Day message: “The truth will set you free: Fake News and Journalism for Peace.”
The organizations encourage talent from all over the world to showcase their work on this extremely important topic. There will be monetary prizes and global recognition for the winners.
Contest entries must be completed and submitted by September 30, 2018. Winning entries will be notified by December 2018.
The posters and videos will be distributed worldwide by members of SIGNIS, which are present in nearly 90 nations around the world.
For more information, visit the Sign is website, which is listed above.

Father Brown’s new way of staying in touch with you — register at www.sthilary.org
I’ll be moving away from using my personal email and Constant Contact, so if you would like to remain on my email list, please sign up for this new service we’ll be using. It’s very easy, and also gives you FREE access to Bishop Barron’s “Word On Fire” materials!
