The parish vision is, simply put, to get us all into heaven. Our mission is to build a community in which we can experience the goodness of the Lord at work in our midst and share some of that limitless joy awaiting us in God’s kingdom.
St. Hilary Book Club will not meet the month of August. We will meet Monday, Sept. 17. At our Sept. meeting we will select our books for 2018-2019. Members please bring a couple of books to recommend. Be prepared to give a brief synopsis of your book and we will make our selections.

St. Hilary Book Club meets the 3rd Monday of each month in Tarantino Hall from 7:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. We discuss the book for the first hour and then we enjoy light refreshments. We welcome new members.

For more information contact: Caroline Buckles (415) 381-1745

Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Sunday, July 29, 2018

Dear parishioners,

A wise old Jesuit who taught us in Rome used to say: “When I first wake up, it’s easy to be a good Christian. I have pleasant thoughts, I thank God for a new day and then...and then I see the list of my colleagues next to the phone and recall grudges. Bob snubbed me yesterday. Sam was a smart-aleck to me last week. And then the violent emotions take over!”

Such is the nature of community life. However, another essential part of community life is what we hear Saint Paul encouraging the people of Ephesus to live out, in today’s second reading:

Brothers and sisters:
I, a prisoner for the Lord,
urge you to live in a manner worthy of the call you have received,
with all humility and gentleness, with patience,
 bearing with one another through love,
 striving to preserve the unity of the spirit through the bond of peace:
 one body and one Spirit,
as you were also called to the one hope of your call;
one Lord, one faith, one baptism;
one God and Father of all,
 who is over all and through all and in all.
 Ephesians 4:1-6

“Bearing with one another” is a necessary ingredient for the Christian community, if we are not to scandalize the world. Other translations put it this way:

- Making allowance for each other’s faults
- Forbearing one another
- Accept each other
- Patiently put up with each other
- Being tolerant with one another
- Be patient with each other and lovingly accept each other
- Do not be hard on others
- Tolerate one another
- With patience supporting each other

What all of these translations have in common is this: an honest acknowledgement that no one is perfect, that we can (and will) get on each other’s nerves, that we are all sinners — and that all of this is nothing compared to the love and patience God has shown us in Christ Jesus. Thus, we are asked to move beyond the “violent emotions” Father Paul Cioffi, S.J., spoke about, and move into a concrete decision to act as one body. With our faults. With our annoying habits. With the knowledge that we cannot remake others into our own image. With the certainty that we are already made in the image and likeness of God, and called to be parts of the Body of Christ his Son, for the salvation of the world.
