“There is no space where God is not; space does not exist apart from Him. He is in heaven, in hell, beyond the seas; dwelling in all things and enveloping all. Thus He embraces, and is embraced by, the universe, confined to no part of it but pervading all.”
Saint Hilary of Poitiers (c. 310 – 367 Anno Domini)
St. Hilary Book Club will NOT meet during the month of August.

We will meet again on Monday, September 17 to select our books for 2018-2019.

Members should please bring a couple of books to recommend. Be prepared to give a brief synopsis of your book, and we will make our selections.

St. Hilary Book Club normally meets the third Monday of each month in Tarantino Hall from 7:00 to 8:30 p.m.

We discuss the book for the first hour and then we enjoy light refreshments.

We always welcome new members!

Dear parishioners,

Today’s second reading, like so much in the Letter to the Ephesians, is not meant for a tiny group of believers who happen to live in the city of Ephesus, but for the whole Church of God — so that it might be a leaven in the world, rather than a scandal to unbelievers:

Brothers and sisters:

Do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God,

with which you were sealed for the day of redemption.

All bitterness, fury, anger, shouting, and reviling must be removed from you, along with all malice.

And be kind to one another, compassionate, forgiving one another as God has forgiven you in Christ.

So be imitators of God, as beloved children,

and live in love,

as Christ loved us and handed himself over for us as a sacrificial offering to God for a fragrant aroma.

_Ephesians 4:30-5:2_

As we read in the introduction found in the New American Bible (the translation we use at Mass), “Ephesians is the great Pauline letter about the church. It deals, however, not so much with a congregation in the city of Ephesus in Asia Minor as with the worldwide church, the head of which is Christ (Eph 4:15), the purpose of which is to be the instrument for making God’s plan of salvation known throughout the universe (Eph 3:9–10). ...

The majestic chapters of Ephesians emphasize the unity in the church of Christ that has come about for both Jews and Gentiles within God’s household (Eph 1:15–2:22, especially Eph 2:11–22) and indeed the ‘seven unities’ of church, Spirit, hope; one Lord, faith, and baptism; and the one God (Eph 4:4–6). Yet the concern is not with the church for its own sake but rather as the means for mission in the world (Eph 3:1–4:24). The gifts Christ gives its members are to lead to growth and renewal (Eph 4:7–24). Ethical admonition is not lacking either; all aspects of human life and relationships are illumined by the light of Christ (Eph 4:25–6:20).”

The good news is that we, as disciples, always have the chance to do an examen, and, should we find ourselves in need of change, to embrace it, often after going to confession and receiving some sensible penance. The bad news is that some never undertake such an examination of conscience and live for decades in a way that drives other people nuts.

I knew a priest about 25 years ago who seemed mean as a junkyard dog — until he suffered a heart attack, which changed his personality beautifully. I knew a parishioner 30 years ago who spent her whole time with gossip, complaining and criticizing others, even telling them when they “needed” to go to confession — and she never changed, at least during my six years at her parish. Both were faithful Catholics in terms of attending Mass and celebrating the Sacraments, but I only saw one become less abrasive.

If our conscience, or our neighbors, or our own loved ones, suggest that we are becoming toxic, let us listen to them and make some changes that will delight not only the people around us, but also the Lord.

_Father Brown_
Relics of Saint Pio of Pietrelcina – better known as Padre Pio – will be at St. Mary Star of the Sea Church in Sausalito on September 8 and 9.

The relics of Saint Pio available for veneration will be his glove; crusts of the wounds; cotton-gauze with his blood stains; a lock of his hair; his mantle; and a handkerchief soaked with his sweat hours before he died.

Schedule for Veneration of Relics:
Saturday, September 8, 8:00am-4:30pm
Sunday, September 9, 8:00am-12:00pm

For further information about this public veneration please visit the parish website, above.

NOTE: All parking at Star of the Sea Church will be reserved for the disabled.

Please check their website for alternative parking and transportation information. Reservations are not necessary but will assist the coordinators: Eventbrite Reservations. This is a free event.

The Saint Pio Foundation, which is sponsoring the tour on the occasion of the 50th commemoration anniversary of his passing, will sell books and items related to Padre Pio.

Funds raised by the Saint Pio Foundation are used to provide grants to American Catholic healthcare, educational, social, religious, and cultural partner organizations.

More information about Saint Pio Foundation can be found at:

NEW Adoration Society!

The Blessed Sacrament Chapel at St. Hilary is closed until September 6 for a complete renovation. Meanwhile, a brand-new Adoration Society is being formed. We need and welcome dedicated volunteers to join the team, faithful Catholics who will make Eucharistic Adoration happen Monday through Saturday for the public. It’s the commitment of such volunteers that makes it possible for people who need some sacred, silent time with our Eucharistic Lord to come to the Chapel and know they can find a safe space.

To participate, contact Shawn Sylvia via email at Ssyvia@sbcglobal.net and check out our parish website under “pray.”
