“This is the cause of our life:
that we have Christ dwelling within our carnal selves
through the flesh, and we shall live through Him in the same manner as He lives through the Father.”
Saint Hilary of Poitiers († 360 A.D.)
Thank you St. Hilary for having us there Sunday! 20 people registered, with 0 deferrals, and 20 people donated 23 units of blood (3 people donated “double red” so twice as much of the red cell component with plasma and platelets returned to them)! We appreciate all you did to make it happen! Each donation can save as many as 3 lives, so you should feel very proud!

Below is a list of just a few actual recent patients who received lifesaving transfusions because of donors like those at your blood drive (please feel free to share if you like):

- 2 hour old baby girl used 2 pints A- due to twin to twin transfusion syndrome
- 58 year old woman used 2 pints O+ due to an acute kidney injury and anemia
- 4 day old baby boy used 1 pint O+ due to thrombocytopenia
- 52 year old woman used 12 units A+ due to an ascending aortic aneurysm

Also locally, we recently supported a patient who used 50 O positive RBCs. Having the blood on the shelves enabled the Hospital Services team to respond rapidly which no doubt contributed to saving this patient’s life.

Thank you for helping save lives
Sunday, August 18, 2019

Dear parishioners,

When I was taking instruction in the Catholic Faith, it was at Central College in Pella, Iowa, a wonderful small university about the size of my high school back in the Antelope Valley in California. It’s the place where Pella Doors and Windows are made, and the college wanted a diversity of students, so they actively recruited people from Africa, Asia, Latin America, Europe, New York, and, in my case, the Mojave Desert.

Central College is affiliated with the Reformed Church of America (RCA), and when I was leaving Southern California to fly out to Iowa for my first year of studies, my mother said, “Oh, Bill, maybe you’ll join that church!” She was pleased that the college I was attending was a Christian institution, but never dreamed I would choose a different Christian family, the Catholic Church, as my home, with the help of God.

Most of the people in town were Dutch, and most were Reformed, so some were puzzled by my decision to seek instruction from the local priest. I remember one dear friend from upper New York State telling me, “Bill, those Catholics believe the saints can help them from heaven, and we don’t believe that at all!”

Perhaps this is one reason I find today’s Second Reading so beautiful, as it reminds me of coming to know about the beauty of what we know as the Communion of Saints:

Brothers and sisters:
Since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us rid ourselves of every burden and sin that clings to us and persevere in running the race that lies before us while keeping our eyes fixed on Jesus,
the leader and perfecter of faith.
For the sake of the joy that lay before him
he endured the cross, despising its shame, and has taken his seat at the right of the throne of God.
Consider how he endured such opposition from sinners,
in order that you may not grow weary and lose heart.
In your struggle against sin
you have not yet resisted to the point of shedding blood.

(Hebrews 12:1-4)

We are indeed surrounded by a “great cloud of witnesses,” which comes to mind each time we celebrate a baptism and do the Litany of the Saints. The statues, stained glass windows, Bible readings, holy medals, and books we use as Catholic Christians all point toward the reality that the communion between heaven and earth is real, and that we need the prayers of good people — our parents and godparents, our neighbors who are caring and holy, and those loved ones who have gone before us.

Death does not get the final word when it comes to the life-giving sacrifice of Jesus, nor when it comes to the holy ones (living and dead) who have remained faithful to the risen the glorified Lord Jesus through thick and thin. Their example, their prayer, their touching our hearts is all a great part of being part of a faith that knows the boundaries between heaven and earth are pierced by the intercessions of believers!

Altar Servers Needed!

If you are in 4th grade or older, we invite you to please contact Diana here at the rectory, so you and one of your parents can take part in a training session with Father Brown.

To celebrate Sunday Mass, we always need a variety of ministries (e.g., lector, choir, Eucharistic minister, usher, master of ceremonies, cantor, greeter, priest), and becoming an altar server is a blessing not only for you, but for the priest and your parish family.

Please talk about it with your family, and then call Diana at 937-5524 to schedule a training session with one of your parents and our pastor. During the summer, we are in special need of new recruits. If you want to train with a friend, even better!

Prayer in front of the Blessed Sacrament is a most personal interaction with THE REAL PRESENCE of Our Lord.

It’s normal to grieve a pregnancy loss, including the loss of a child by abortion. It can form a hole in one’s heart so deep that sometimes it seems nothing can fill the emptiness. The Archdiocese of San Francisco sponsors Project Rachel, which helps women and men heal the pain of abortion and find the path to peace and reconciliation. There are two retreats (for women only) in September. Counseling, Mass, and the Sacrament of Reconciliation will be offered. The retreats are held at a confidential site, and all inquiries are confidential. A $50 donation is asked, but can be waived for financial hardship. The retreats are:

September 7 - 8 (in Spanish), led by Fr. Armando Gutierrez, Archdiocese of San Francisco.
September 14 - 15 (in English), led by Fr. Vito Perrone, Contemplatives of St. Joseph, with the Daughters of Carmel. Sign up by e-mail or phone (above)

Chapel open daily 7:30am – 6:00pm. Email ssylvia@sbcglobal.net for a tour of the chapel. Bring a friend to pray with you.
