Dear fellow parishioners,

In the midst of the excitement and joy of seeing our school open again for a new year, we also encounter bad news about politics, religion, violence, suffering, ongoing warfare, and deceit. We should and do focus on very joyful things like the first day of school, during which our leaders (principal, parochial vicar, teachers, staff members) did a very funny flash mob dance for the kids, and the laughter and tears as parents dropped off their little ones for their first time away: Kindergarten.

However, we can not ignore the evils and wounds eternally present in our world, our church, and our own hearts. Some families are broken or dented due to infidelity and divorce, some bishops and priests are guilty of serious crimes against young people, and some politicians use their money and position to further their own interests rather than those of the wider community, which must always care for the poor — as the Lord God reminds us in both Old and New Testaments over and over again.

In today’s Gospel, Jesus confronts well-meaning but fussy religious people who love to keep an eye out for the conduct of others, and then gossip about who’s doing things right, and who’s not. For example, the Pharisees rejoice in criticizing Jesus’ disciples because they forgot to wash their hands before eating — scandal! Sin! His reply regarding ‘cooties’ that might come to us if we forget every minute detail of manmade tradition?

He summoned the crowd again and said to them,

“Hear me, all of you, and understand.

Nothing that enters one from outside can defile that person;
but the things that come out from within are what defile.

From within people, from their hearts, come evil thoughts, unchastity, theft, murder, adultery, greed, malice, deceit, licentiousness, envy, blasphemy, arrogance, folly.

All these evils come from within and they defile.”

(Mark 7)

Once again, it’s often the children in our world who help us come back to the center: God, family, community, caring for one another. So often, their insights are wonderfully free from the evils Jesus describes, like those two little boys who wanted to fool their teacher by getting the very same haircut, so she wouldn’t be able to tell them apart: one boy was black, the other white. They had noticed identical twin girls in their class who kept the teacher guessing, and so, in their wonderful innocence, they assumed that the girls’ hair was it!

Our piety, prayer, Eucharistic adoration, meditation, reverence at Mass, and our fidelity to the Catholic faith is vitally important if we are to stay true to our sacred roots. In addition, today’s Second Reading reminds us that going through the motions in not enough: our piety should form us into people of Christian action: “Religion that is pure and undefiled before God and the Father is this: to care for orphans and widows in their affliction and to keep oneself unstained by the world.” (James 1)

For me, being part of this community, St. Hilary Church & School, is a great corrective to what the world might have us embrace instead. I thank you for helping me, year after year, recognize Jesus in your outreach, your fidelity, your concern for those in need, and your dedication to the Risen Lord at Mass through your reverence, your generosity of spirit, and your obvious desire for genuine holiness.

Father Brown
Are you or someone you love dealing with separation or divorce? The Archdiocese strives to make known Christ’s healing love, so that all who suffer from separation and divorce might experience new life, reconciliation and restoration, meet people in a similar position and find help to rebuild their own lives. We also recognize that separated and divorced people are not mere recipients of the Church’s compassion; they are ministers of that compassion. Through their vulnerability, suffering, courage, faithfulness, and patient endurance they bear witness to Christ and his redeeming grace in the world.

New Beginnings: a Catholic Divorce Ministry group in Marin (St. Hilary Parish) meets the 2nd Friday of the month (6:30pm) – contact Karen (415-250-2597).

A Spanish-speaking group meets at Our Lady of Loretto/Novato the 3rd Friday (7:00pm) – contact Victoria (702-460-3116).

Blessed Sacrament Chapel
Thanks to a generous donor, our Eucharistic Adoration Chapel has been renovated, and we invite you to stop by (between the Church and Tarantino Hall) by walking down the little hallway toward the door with monstrance.

The chapel is a great way to get some sacred peace and quiet on Sundays when others are visiting with neighbors in the church, but especially a beautiful opportunity to take part in Eucharistic Adoration Monday through Saturday. Contact the lead person, Shawn Sylvia, if you are willing to join our new Adoration Society: Ssylvia@scbglobal.net
