“Priesthood Sunday” and new weekday Mass Schedule

Sunday, September 27, 2019

Dear friends in Christ,

To be blunt, I’m not quite sure what “Priesthood Sunday” is all about, but I noticed it on our parish wall calendar as I sat down to write this weekly letter, so there you have it. I’m also feeling sick as a blue-nosed skunk this week, so the title of this weekend makes me realize that priests are not only fallible, and rather an endangered species, but also limited in what we can do — especially when we lack the expertise on an issue, or when we are under the weather, or when we feel overwhelmed by the things going on in the world and even in the parish where we’re assigned.

Such realizations make me very grateful for the good people who work here, who volunteer here, and who come here to share their insights and advice. I’m thinking of so many individuals and groups, but here are just a few: the Finance Council; the Parish Pastoral Council; the Parent Advisory Board; the Tiger Parent Association; the St. Vincent de Paul Society; the CYO Board; the faculty of our parochial school and the catechists of our faith formation program; the staff members who keep things running smoothly in the rectory and school offices; the volunteers who faithfully and anonymously keep the sacristy duties going, the Adoration Chapel open, and the Gabriel Project a source of support to pregnant women in need. The list goes on and on, but I will not. Suffice it to say that, as your pastor since 2010, I am daily grateful for the many good people who make Saint Hilary Church and School thrive for the Lord Jesus.

One suggestion that comes to us over and over again has convinced me to make a change in our Mass schedule. Namely, in March of 2011, our beloved friend Helen Kelly (commemorated by the lovely olive tree between the school and church) suggested moving the weekday Mass from 8:15 a.m. to 8:30 because of the traffic problems on Tiburon Boulevard. I ran Helen’s idea by the community, and it seemed so sensible we made the change. In fact, I just found the email string from 2011 and was grateful for the community feedback.

Now, as mentioned above, we have been asked to move the morning Mass from 8:30 a.m. to 9:00 because the faithful who attend Mass every single day are plagued by the traffic challenges on our little peninsula and end up arriving late in spite of their best efforts. Once again I consulted with the people who attend the Mass, sent out a Flocknote, and received a lot of helpful feedback: this means that, starting on Monday, October 28, our weekday Mass will be at nine o’clock in the morning. This also means that here at Saint Hilary’s we will have Mass at 9:00 a.m. every day of the week, including Saturdays, Sundays, and Holy Days of Obligation. I sincerely hope this will make it easier for daily communicants to worship the Lord without being plagued by the traffic problem.

Diana Rittenhouse did some research for those who might want an earlier Mass in the area, and this is what she shared with me:

- 7:00 a.m. Mass in Kentfield at Saint Sebastian Church Monday through Saturday.
- 7:45 a.m. Mass in Mill Valley at Our Lady of Mount Carmel Monday through Saturday — except Tuesdays.
- 8:00 a.m. Mass in Sausalito at Star of the Sea Church Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday.
- 8:00 a.m. Mass in Ross at Saint Anselm Church Monday through Friday — except Tuesdays.

My thanks to all of you for your helpful guidance, your good work for the Lord, and your understanding when changes come to our little parish by the bay.

Relics on All Saints Day
November 1, 2019: The Solemnity of All Saints

The Feast of All Saints Day is celebrated on the 1st of November every year. This is a special remembrance day for all the Saints of the Roman Catholic Church. The life of our Saints exemplifies how to live our Christian life. They characterize the true Christian spirituality by living the Sacred Scriptures and defending the faith in an utmost degree. This selfless and charitable way of life of our Saints paved the way for the Roman Catholic Church to flourish and withstand all the sufferings and persecutions all these years. Thus, these saints played an important role in chiseling and protecting the Church we have today; A Church which is One, Holy, Catholic and Apostolic, and primarily geared to Jesus Christ, Our Almighty Savior.

As we celebrate this Feast of All Saints Day, we are blessed to have some relics of some key Saints in the history of the Roman Catholic Church, namely:

- St. Therese de Lisieux
- St. Theresa de Avila
- St. Francis of Assisi
- St. Padre Pio of Pietrelcina
- St. Augustine of Hippo
- St. Anthony de Padua, and
- St. John Chrysostom.

These relics will be exposed for veneration on all masses during the feast day. As we venerate these Saints, please pray for their intercession in your spiritual journey. Their lives were remarkably inspiring and could be a great example of how to deal with your personal life.

All Saints Day has been a tradition celebrated universally and not only limited to the Catholic Church. This tribute to these Saints is also celebrated by Eastern Orthodox Church and other Protestant denominations. Thus, as we celebrate the Feast of All Saints, let us spend time and pray to all Saints in heaven for intercession.

Have a Blessed All Saints Day!!!
