“National Vocation Awareness Week”

Sunday, November 3, 2019

Dear parishioners,

With all the bad news recently, one item on the radio caught my attention a few days ago: “A cathedral in San Francisco is opening its doors as a shelter for those displaced by the fires up north.”

There followed an encouraging description about how this local church would be using its large facilities, in cooperation with the interfaith coalition, to provide much needed relief to refugees from the wine country fires. As I listened to the story, I kept wondering which cathedral they were talking about, and finally the name was mentioned: Saint Mary’s Cathedral in San Francisco.

Never once was the word “Catholic” used, yet we know from experience that when bad news comes from our Church, the word Catholic is uttered over and over again: abuse; theft; scandal.

Why does this come to mind as we continue to deal with so many crises in our state and throughout the world, and as we begin “National Vocation Awareness Week” today?

It strikes me that good Catholic people are still doing what we have been doing since the Church was born from the side of Christ crucified: we help the poor; we educate the young; we care for the sick and dying; we stand up for the dignity of human life; we try to make our world holier, healthier, and happier; we follow Jesus by using our time and treasure to help people know and celebrate the Good News even here, as we prepare for his Second Coming in glory.

This means we need good Catholic families to encourage vocations to the religious life and the priesthood more than ever, because all too often the world encourages us to strive for money, fame, and power. Here are some ideas from the American bishops for those who might feel a call toward ministry:

HOW TO DISCERN YOUR VOCATION:

- PRAY — Establish a routine prayer life of attending Mass regularly, praying the Rosary, meditating on Scripture, journaling, making a retreat, and spending time with the Lord in front of the Blessed Sacrament.
- TALK — Contact your Diocesan Vocations Director and speak to them about your discernment thus far to get their advice on next steps.
- SPIRITUAL DIRECTION — Spiritual Direction, often by a priest or consecrated person, attunes the heart to the voice of the Lord and will help you identify how the Holy Spirit is moving in your life.
- COME & SEE — Often coordinated by the diocesan vocation office, these "Come & See" events offer a glimpse into the life of a seminarian / religious sister and will help you identify if this is the life to which God is calling you.
- GET INVOLVED — Consider volunteering in your parish or community and finding trusted friends who can provide support and accountability for your discernment journey.
- REST — Discerning a vocation should not be considered an “accomplishment” that you check off your to do list. It’s a daily walking with God that involves the whole person. A healthy life balance of eating well, exercising, and getting the proper amount of rest will positively contribute to your spiritual well-being!

If you know a young person who is thinking about become a priest or a religious, please gently encourage them to speak with you or a sensible trusted person about their call. We have been blessed lately to witness a number of priestly vocations from one city alone, Novato, but we need to support vocations from all our local people who might be wondering, “is God really calling me to this kind of life?”

May God bless you and yours, as we try to be of service to the Risen Lord — and his sisters and brothers.

Recently I checked my own Smile.Amazon.com account and discovered I had “earned” more than a thousand dollars for our parish by simply using this AmazonSmile option: but it’s important to use the correct bookmark, or no charity gets helped.

As our population decreases, this is a great and simple way to help your parish stay in the black!

Many thanks — Father Brown 😊

Memorare

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to your protection, implored your help or sought your intercession, was left unaided.

Inspired with this confidence, I fly to you, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother; to you do I come, before you I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in your mercy hear and answer me. Amen.
The St. Hilary Tiger says:

“No one can make you feel inferior without your consent.”
