“When a man loves a woman, he has to become worthy of her. The higher her virtue, the more noble her character, the more devoted she is to truth, justice, goodness, the more a man has to aspire to be worthy of her. The history of civilization could actually be written in terms of the level of its women.”
Venerable Fulton Sheen

Dear friends in Christ,

If you are at all like me, this time of year can find us a bit weary, overwhelmed, and worried about the busy seasons to come. The people around us who are so energized and optimistic are a constant (and very welcome) source of amazement, and they are a part of our church and school just as much as those of us who might feel a bit worn out. Today’s second reading from Mass reminds me of this reality, and God’s call to take encouragement not only from him, from his son Jesus, but also from the good Christians around us who truly mirror the hope and goodness from above:

Brothers and sisters:
May our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who has loved us and given us everlasting encouragement and good hope through his grace, encourage your hearts and strengthen them in every good deed and word.

Finally, brothers and sisters, pray for us, so that the word of the Lord may speed forward and be glorified, as it did among you, and that we may be delivered from perverse and wicked people, for not all have faith.

But the Lord is faithful; he will strengthen you and guard you from the evil one.

We are confident of you in the Lord that what we instruct you, you are doing and will continue to do.

May the Lord direct your hearts to the love of God and to the endurance of Christ.

(2 Thessalonians 2:16 to 3:5)

There is a lot going on in our world, our families, our school, our parish, our places of work, and our country, but, praised be Jesus!, there are always people willing and able to step up to the plate and make good things happen.

As we approach the end of our liturgical year and the beginning of Advent, I think especially of the numerous men, women, children and teens who plunge into our community life with great generosity of spirit, providing cheer to those who might need it most, and a touch of God’s love to people who crave intimacy with the Risen Jesus. We also stand in awe of people in our community who step up and say: “here’s a need we have noticed — how can we make this happen?” No one person, no single parish, no particular school, can change the world, but we can change the world for some people, and for them this means everything. In the coming weeks we will be reaching out to you and inviting your participation and leadership in a number of worthy endeavors, knowing full well that the good people of Saint Hilary will come together and make all well:

- The Advent Giving Tree project, in which you will be invited to take a star from the pine tree in the sanctuary and purchase a gift for a needy child’s Christmas.
- The Christmas Feast card drive, during which we will ask you to consider buying a Safeway gift card, and writing a personal card or letter to a family who will use that card to make their Christmas dinner.
- The Prayer Ministry housed in our Blessed Sacrament Chapel (right between Tarantino Hall and the church), down that little hallway where the door is never locked. By volunteering to “keep watch” with the Lord, you provide a much-needed haven of adoration and prayer for people whose lives are very busy, troubled, or simply in need of some sacred silence.
- The “Deck The Halls” event where everyone is invited to come and decorate our tree in Tarantino Hall while enjoying snacks together and taking part in sing-along Christmas carols.
- The Saint Vincent de Paul Society, which reaches out to people in our own area as well as the free dining room in San Rafael. How many people from Saint Hilary have chosen to volunteer their time there, over the years!
- Supporting your parish financially as best you can, helping us stay in the black, even as our numbers drop and our costs increase. This is a reality for the parishes in all three counties of the Archdiocese of San Francisco, and we are most grateful for our many benefactors who help through the collection basket, year-end giving, and leaving us in their Last Will and Testament.

God bless you and yours,

Father Brown

Will you knit a scarf for one of our overseas Soldiers? Blue Star Moms of Marin will be packing Christmas boxes in late November with treats for our troops and beautiful warm scarves. It’s easy, is received with heartfelt thanks and makes you feel good. Please contact Penny at: eccoci@sbcglobal.net
All scarves need to be ready for pickup just before Thanksgiving to coordinate with the packing schedule.

Bookmark Smile.Amazon.Com on your browser, and choose your parish from the list of charities your purchases will support through Amazon!
We are listed exactly as:
St Hilarys Church Tiburon, CA
on the Smile.Amazon.com charity list.
You may also find our parish by using this link:

If you have trouble finding us in the AmazonSmile search box, try using these search words:
Hilarys Tiburon

Recently I checked my own Smile.Amazon.com account and discovered I had “earned” more than a thousand dollars for our parish by simply using this AmazonSmile option: but it’s important to use the correct bookmark, or no charity gets helped.

As our population decreases, this is a great and simple way to help your parish stay in the black!

Many thanks — Father Brown ☺

Eucharistic Adoration Ministry at Saint Hilary Parish: Monday through Saturday

Our Blessed Sacrament Chapel (located down the little hallway between the Church and Tarantino Hall) is a sacred oasis in this busy and troubled world, for those who desire greater intimacy with Jesus, and the chance to enjoy some holy silence with him and his people.

If you are able to dedicate an hour a week, or one hour a month, you help make Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament possible for the people of Marin County — a great service.

Please contact Shawn Sylvia to learn more.
