Advent Ends and Christmas Begins

Sunday, December 22, 2019

Dear parishioners, guests, and visitors,

This church bulletin will be distributed the last Sunday of Advent, but also at our six of Christmas Masses, so I wanted to take the opportunity to welcome all who might be home from college, here to stay with loved ones, or visiting from out of town. Our parish also welcomes those who might be attending a Catholic Mass for the very first time in their lives, or for the first time in many years — this is a beautiful time of the year when God calls to the human heart in so many ways!

The Advent Season has seen our church (and our priests) covered in somber violet, a symbol of the dark of winter, the waiting that is ours as we approach the birth of Jesus, and a reminder that the whole Christian people look forward to the Second Coming of Christ, the Parousia — παρουσία — when God will be all in all, and everything that separates us from Christ’s glory will be wiped away.

As for wait for Jesus to return, we sing hymns that reveal our joyful expectation of that great day, we hear Bible readings that tell the world we are not afraid of the Risen and Glorified Lord, and church hymns expressing the fact that we eagerly look forward to his παρουσία — “O Come, O Come, Emmanuel,” Maranatha, “People, Look East,” “Patience, People.”

Saint Paul thought the Lord Jesus would return very, very soon, and so at one point recommended that the faithful focus solely on the Second Coming and not engage in business, marriage, or anything else that might be described as long-term planning. When Paul realized this might happen as quickly as he imagined, he and others encouraged us to always be ready to meet the Lord, but also to be mindful that we can’t schedule the universe around our personal calendars, so we should make our whole lives a proclamation of the Gospel by the way we use our time, money, talents, and creativity, thus showing the world that we are indeed members of God’s own people.

For this reason, communities like ours have undertaken special Advent practices such as meditation, helping the needy, examination of conscience, the Sacrament of Penance, reconciliation with others, and increased generosity of spirit to causes we believe in: our parish (to try to get it into the black), nearby communities in need, the hospital in Bethlehem for moms and babies, the Saint Vincent de Paul Society of Marin County, the Archdiocesan Annual Appeal. Donations, volunteering, forgiving, and surprising complete strangers by acts of kindness are not only good for the recipient, but of course also for the giver, as we know from personal experience. It feels good to give, but more importantly, it puts us in closer communion with all God’s children and shows that we have listened to Scripture and have chosen to live what we have heard.

“Beloved: The grace of God has appeared, saving all and training us to reject godless ways and worldly desires and to live temperately, justly, and devoutly in this age, as we await the blessed hope, the appearance of the glory of our great God and savior Jesus Christ, who gave himself for us to deliver us from all lawlessness and to cleanse for himself a people as his own, eager to do what is good.” (Titus 2:11-14)

May your Advent preparations, and your celebration of the birth of Jesus, bring blessings to you and your loved ones in a world that cries out for peace, blessing, and hope!

Christmas Food Drive

We invite you to purchase a $50.00 Safeway Gift Card, write a nice Christmas Card (or have your children compose a lovely Christmas letter), and then drop it into the Poor Box in church, or the collection basket during Sunday Mass.

Please be sure to only spend $50.00 on each card and please write the amount so we are sure it is $50.00. Each envelope will be taken to the centers in Marin City, The Hilarita and the Canal District, thus allowing the recipients to receive not only Christmas wishes from you, But also a Safeway $50.00 gift card so they can purchase what they need to prepare a special Christmas Dinner. Thank you all in advance for your generosity!

Please return gift cards by December 17th!

Recently I checked my own Smile.Amazon.com account and discovered I had “earned” more than a thousand dollars for our parish by simply using this AmazonSmile option: but it’s important to use the correct bookmark, or no charity gets helped.
As our population decreases, this is a great and simple way to help your parish stay in the black! Many thanks — Father Brown 😊

If anyone has reason to believe, or might suspect, there is or has been abuse involving clergy, employees, volunteers, or children attending Catholic schools, parish religious education programs, or other church-related events, those suspicions or allegations are to be reported first to civil authorities and then to the Archdiocese via its assigned Victim Assistance Coordinator, Rocio Rodriguez, LMFT. Phone: (415) 614-5506 — Email: rodriguezr@sfarchdiocese.org https://sfarchdiocese.org/how-to-report-suspected-abuse
Cases of alleged abuse in which the abuser and the victim are of the same household are to be reported to Child Protective Services (CPS), while cases in which the alleged victim and the accused do not share a household should be reported to law enforcement authorities (sheriff’s department or local police).
For Marin County, the proper authorities are listed below:
Child Protective Services (415) 499-7153
Sheriff’s Department (415) 479-2311

Eucharistic Adoration Chapel ~ ADVENT
Advent is a special time to spend time in front of Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament. Consider “homework” of adding something to your Advent preparation for the Birth of our Lord. Spend 15 minutes with Our Lord Jesus there, truly present in the Blessed Sacrament. Many fellow parishioners this past weekend celebrated a monthly 24 HOUR First Friday/Saturday vigil in our Adoration Chapel WITH HIM.

Eucharistic Adoration chapel hours ~ 7am – 6pm Daily
Please sign in so we know you were there. If you want a permanent weekly spot, leave your name and email, the Adoration Society will contact you.

“I weep and mourn at the feet of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament for often I’m consoled” St. John Paul II

"A thousand years of enjoying human glory is not worth even an hour spent in sweetly communing with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament." St. Padre Pio
